

TIFF[®] Provider Licensing Training Cape Town, South Africa 2019

We invite Coaches, Counsellors, Trainers, Psychotherapists, Leaders, HR managers and other “people professionals”, who support the development of individuals and teams, to start a second round of TIFF[®] provider training in South Africa.

What is TIFF[®]?

TIFF[®] is a well-researched tool for personal and professional development, based on the Functional Fluency model.

TIFF[®] promotes the self-awareness and understanding that enhances emotional literacy.

TIFF[®] is a valuable tool for consultants, trainers, counsellors, coaches and psychotherapists.

TIFF[®] provides an innovative framework to help people bring about positive change.

The TIFF[®] Training:

The TIFF[®] Provider training process is designed to enable participants to meet the TIFF[®] licensing criteria so that they can deliver TIFF effectively in their respective professional contexts.

The training is friendly & interactive, consisting of workshops, discussions, practice, supervision and tutorials, flexibly designed to meet the group’s needs.

The training provides valuable personal and professional development for participants.

Who are the facilitators?

Lieuwe Koopmans

Lieuwe is a highly experienced trainer, coach, counsellor and organisational consultant based in the Netherlands. He works internationally as a trainer for Functional Fluency. Lieuwe is internationally endorsed as a TA trainer and supervisor (TSTA Organisational).
In 2016, he trained the first group of TIFF[®] providers for South Africa.

Layo Seriki

Layo is one of the first TIFF[®] providers trained in South Africa in 2016. She is the managing director of CIELARKO Coaching & Consulting and has been using TIFF[®] with her clients for the past 2 years. Seeing the strong positive impact this tool is having on her work, she looks forward to growing the South African TIFF[®] provider network, as well as to learning from and working alongside Lieuwe during this training.
